“Proceed with passion and create success.”

Jeffrey Hansler passionately translates his knowledge into entertaining programs providing skills and excitement for attendees. Jeffrey has been consulting and coaching since 1983, training since 1988, and delivering keynote and general session programs for since 1994. All his programs are customized for the client, event, and venue.

As an experienced executive, leader, organizational development expert, and talent development specialist, he weaves his knowledge into programs tied to your theme and delivered with style. His programs set the stage for the day, keep energy high, or bring your event to a successful close. Stimulating and powerful are desired results and programs length is determined by your needs and the results desired.

A Certified Speaking Professional, talent development specialist, NAUI Instructor, an author of “Sell Little Red Hen! Sell!” and “Better Golf with Gene”, his in-depth knowledge of content, presentation, and ‘tech’ ensures you receive the best result.

Jeffrey has been working extensively with hybrid program technology (live online) for years. So, if you want him virtually, he knows what’s needed.
